Great Fire in Minnesota Lumber Yard—The Palatine Conflagration—Drought and Disease—Facts of Interest from Home and Foreign Points.
DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 11.—At about 1 o'clock Monday morning fire was discovered in the yard of the Ontario Lumber company, four miles from town. The mills had been shut down Saturday night, and there was no steam in the fire pumps, so until the arrival of an engine from the city the fire was not extinguished. It started in the middle of the yard and burned in all directions, to the east taking dwellings, stables and boarding-houses to the number of seven, and to the south to the mill, which was also consumed. One who was near the fire said the yard and mill of the Ontario & Highgate Lumber company, which were swept clean. The yards of both companies were piled full of dry sawed lumber. Ontario company had 100,000 feet burned, and Highgate & Ontario 1,000,000 feet in all, which with the two mills, was worth $750,000. On this there is an insurance of $100,000. The fire is thought to have been incendiary. At noon Monday the burning was completely arrested. The Ontario mill was not touched. The fire was not extinguished until it was in the street, but was not taken off, and he escaped. This act has, of course, increased the citizens. A guard will be maintained indefinitely. This is the second attempt at such a scheme in this city. It is understood that the incendiary arrested Saturday has been removed to the jail of a neighboring county to frustrate a lynching which had been planned. In one of the tank cars which was not burned, it was found as yet there was $25,000 in specie. The heat was intense, and anxiety as to the fate of the money is felt. The total loss will reach over $600,000, partially insured.
At the Lord Mayor's Banquet.
LONDON, Nov. 11.—Lord Hartington, minister of war; Earl Granville, minister of foreign affairs; Lord Northbrook, first lord of the treasury; and Sir John Lubbock, the Canadian premier, were the members of the government present at the lord mayor's banquet in Guild hall at Monday night. Mr. Gladstone, Lord Derby, and Mr. Trevelyan did not attend. Lord Northbrook, in his speech, speaking of the gradual strengthening of the forces, said that the army would be augmented by 10,000 men during the year. Lord Northbrook made a similar statement concerning the navy, remarking that there would be an increase in the strength of the fleet, and that a number of swift cruisers were to be added. Earl Granville, responding for the minister, said that he hoped the war between China and France would soon cease. He declared that England was ready either to mediate between the belligerents, or to heartily approve such mediation on the part of the United States. He hoped Gen. Lord Wolsey would succeed in his operations for the relief of Gen. Gordon, and there was every reason to feel encouraged in such a hope. Speaking for the government, he could say that they remained firm in their attitude toward the question of franchise as embodied in the measure pending in parliament. These statements of the representatives of the government elicited signs of great approval.
Decision of an Alabama Claims Case.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—A decision was rendered by the supreme court of the United States Monday afternoon in the case of the Alabama claims. The decision was in favor of the United States insurance company, appellant, against the United States, appellee, from the court of claims. This was a suit brought by the insurance company to recover $245,000, with interest, alleged to be due from the United States. The court found in favor of the insurance company, and ordered an account of the war risk taken by the appellant upon vessels destroyed by Confederate cruisers. The court of claims dismissed the appellant's petition upon the ground that it was jurisdictional. The court affirmed the judgment of the court of claims, and holds that the court of claims was prohibited from taking jurisdiction by express statutes. As to the merits of the controversy between the appellant and the United States, the court declines to express any opinion, for the reason that a special tribunal has been appointed for the determination of such questions.
Drought Causes Disease.
TROY, N. Y., Nov. 11.—For several months a severe drought has prevailed in this section, so that the springs and wells are dry. As a last resort their people have resorted to the use of the water of the small streams for their water for several weeks. A disease resembling diphtheria has been epidemic in this and adjoining counties with terrible fatal results. Persons and stock have been killed in numbers. It is estimated that the loss of stock in this section will reach $50,000, and fully 100 persons have died. An examination instituted reveals the fact that owing to the long drought the water has become heavily charged with minerals in the beds through which they flow. The victims are seized with a flux that quickly terminates in death, and is particularly fatal to children.

Improvement of Affairs in the British Metal Trade.
LONDON, Nov. 11.—The Cleveland election to the American presidency has given great encouragement to the mine owners in the Cornwall district, who are confident from his attitude toward the tariff, that he will seek to bring about a reduction of the duties upon metals imported into the United States. Managers of a number of mines that were about to be closed on account of dullness in the trade, have been ordered to continue their operation. There is a better feeling in mining circles than has been known for years.

THE CIVIL SERVICE.
Speculation as to How It Will Be Affected by Cleveland's Election.
CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The Inter Ocean has a special from Washington which says: Judge Thomas, of the civil service commission, says that if Grover Cleveland is elected, and of this he has no doubt, being a Democrat, the Pendleton civil service reform law will be maintained. He regards Cleveland's record in New York as a guarantee of this, and believes that much more respect for the law would be shown by congress, as well as by the heads of departments, with Cleveland in the White House than with Blaine there. Judge Thomas has been on the stump during the campaign, and has been doing his best work for Cleveland.
Good judges of civil service reform take a grain of salt with his views in regard to the possibility of the change. The extent of the change possible is shown to be considerable. According to the report of the civil service commission there are in all about 110,000 persons holding offices under the government in the United States, 30,000 of whom are postmasters. Four hundred are in the railway mail service, and an equal number in the internal revenue service outside of the city, the rest being divided among the customs and coin-mint service and clerks and clerical grades and of the federal courts. A large proportion of the whole number, however, are classed as laborers. Coming within the provisions of the civil service law, and being protected thereby, are three hundred and sixty-two department clerks receiving salaries from $500 to $1,800 per annum; 5,000 postal employees receiving from $800 to $1,800 per annum, and 2,572 custom employees receiving from $800 to $1,800 per annum. In the three branches of the classified service there are, therefore, about 14,000 places that can be filled by competitive examination only. This leaves the large number of 96,000 persons subject to removal at will, and of whom are not postmasters. In Washington the changes will not, it is believed, exceed 500 outside of the printing bureau. This will include the higher offices and the laborers.
Nothing Surprising Here.
BOSTON, Nov. 11.—A Waterbury (Conn.) special to The Globe says: On election day the superintendent of one of the largest textile mills in the city, who is alleged to be voting for Cleveland. He was arrested by authority of the assistant district attorney and Monday was brought to trial. It was looked upon as a test case by the manufacturers there, many of whom are in the city. What was their surprise to find George E. Terry, the city attorney, and also state attorney appearing for the defense. Of course if the case were appealed he would be the one to appear in the superior court. The court withdrew judgment.
